Brief on Amani Darwish Law Firm & Legal Consultants

Amani Darwish Law Firm & Legal Consultants, UAE is an all-inclusive law firm that works on providing legal consultations for normal and legal personalities and clients before courts of different levels and other judicial bodies. This is in addition to drafting local and international contracts and providing mediation and arbitration services and other services that require legal representation through a team of highly-qualified, efficient lawyers and advisors of specialty and high expertise. Based on full recognition of our client's requirements, we endeavor to get the best outcomes for them by providing full legal and administrative support.

We do believe that advocacy is a noble job that is based on honor, integrity and devotion to its duties and ethics. The client is our main pillar in work and the proof of our success. We look forward to rendering our legal services with new prospects while clinging to the ethics and traditions of advocacy in terms of maintaining the secrets of our clients and preserving their interests. We rely on outstanding and cumulative expertise in the field of law. Our lawyers, legal experts and advisors, of different nationalities, have high legal expertise and thorough knowledge of all applicable laws in UAE.

Our firm is ready to defend the interests of our clients before all judicial and para-judicial bodies and all courts and to provide the legal advice and consultations they require in order to avoid the legal risks that may arise from their daily transactions.

Our Objectives

- To uncover the truth and achieve justice.
- To recognize and understand the requirements of clients and realize them.
- To render legal services to clients in a timely and quality manner.

Our Values

- Professionalism in rendering legal services and excellence in all what we do.
- Quality and precision in and speed of performance.
- Constructive self-criticism and self-improvement through, continuous learning and developing our staff performance.
- Continuity of the relations and active communication with clients with full respect and high spirits.

Our Team

Our success and the quality of our legal services are mainly dependent on the spirit of our collaborative and harmonious team. Our team study the requests of our clients, understand their requirements and render the legal services that guarantee the preservation of their rights and interests. Top professionals with legal and field experience work with us.
